About Pride Source

Michigan's Trusted Partners of the LGBTQ+ Community

PrideSource.com is published by Pride Source Media Group, LLC. based in Ann Arbor, Michigan. Established in 1995, PSMG produces the award-winning biweekly LGBTQ+ print publication, Between The Lines and the Michigan Pride Source Yellow Pages. The content for both appears in a fully searchable format on this website.

Between The Lines weekly newspaper is the largest and longest-running LGBTQ+ publication in Michigan. Our print edition is published every other Thursday and we are available for free pickup at over 600 locations throughout the state.

In 2022, Pride Source/Between the Lines won its first NLGJA award (for Excellence in Transgender Coverage) for writer Ellen Shanna Knoppow's story, "How Two Detroit Ballroom Godmothers Made Sure VICE Got the Whole Story About Murdered Trans Woman Kelly Stough."
